

Golden Book Awards April 30th 2020

Dragonflies: Jazlyn is our winner in Dragonflies this week. She has been chosen for doing the most amazing home learning with her Mummy covering every single area of the curriculum. The Talent winner for Dragonflies goes to Andee for her singing, dancing and guitar playing. Well done to you both.	Ladybirds: Jayden is the winner of the talent competition on Ladybirds. Jayden was amazing with his singing and guitar playing. Very exciting, well done Jayden! Alex O is the Ladybird Golden book winner for working really hard every week and completing his home learning with a big smile on his face.	Bumblebees: Lilah is the Talent winner this week for her fabulous acting out of 'The room on the broom'. Amazing work Lilah, well done. The Golden book award goes to Alexis for completing the awareness challenges about her environment and finding out about space facts after looking at the stars. Well done girls.	Butterflies: Bianca is the Golden book winner this week for all the lovely activities she has been doing at home, a lot of them whilst wearing a beautiful princess dress! It has been great to see her family all working, playing and learning together. The Talent winner in Butterflies is Roman for his fantastic performance as Paddington, showing great confidence and acting skills.
Otters: The Golden book award this week goes to Cody for lots of great home learning but particularly for working so hard with his reading and writing. His riddle was written so neatly! Well done Cody.	Squirrels: The Golden book award this week goes to Ruby for her great attitude to home learning and creativity when completing activities. We have loved looking at your work Ruby!	Hedgehogs: Ava M is Golden Book winner this week for her great attitude, doing all her home learning with a big smile on her face. It is always a pleasure to look at your home learning Ava, well done.	Moles: Zach G is Golden book winner this week for setting himself the challenge to improve his writing - a real reflective owl. Fabulous work Zach, well done!
Woodpeckers: Jake is our Golden book winner this week. Jake, your teachers and I are really proud of your great attitude towards your home learning. Keep it up!	Kingfishers: Well done Ella, you are the Golden book winner this week. You are so enthusiastic in your approach to all your home learning and you are also using this time to develop different skills like baking and gardening! Well done Ella great job!	Robins: Vinnie is our Golden book winner this week for his superb attitude to home learning and improved handwriting. Well done Vinnie, we are super proud of you.	Kestrels: Kyle is our Golden book winner this week for his perseverance and good attitude with his home learning even when he is finding it hard going. Keep it up Kyle, well done.

Mr Mills' Sporting Superstar April 30th

Mr Mills Sporting superstar this week is:

Max in Woodpeckers for his amazing Bouncing and basketball skills.

Well done Max.

Don't forget that even though we are in lockdown, it is still really important to get some form of physical activity every day. There are some lovely Youtube videos such as Kids Zumba and Just Dance and if you are able to get outside for a daily walk this is amazing for wellbeing. I make sure I get a little walk or run every day and I definitely feel better for it!
